In the good old style we must simply offer our congratulations in print as we did, on the happy occasion, in person. The favored few who were present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent, and a happier bride and bridegroom we have never seen. Both are natives of Bobbie Burns' beloved Scotia, but the winds of fate wafted them to Winchester, where they have lived "for a little season," and where we hope they may ever find happiness and case enough to drown every sigh for their own, their native land.
